

Identity Workshop!

*A creative workspace to map who you are, explore what shapes your story, and begin building the words that could become your song.
Take your time. Be honest.*

NAME _____	CLASS _____
DATE _____	TEACHER _____

01 — TODAY

Three things, one workspace.

You'll move through three connected activities — an Identity Map, a Music Mini-Session, and a Lyric Asset Bank.

01 Identity Map Map people, places, values that shape you.	02 Map → Words Turn the map into honest sentences.	03 Music Session Names, respect, community, identity.	04 Asset Bank Save best ideas for Day 3–5 lyrics.
---	---	--	---

02 — IDENTITY MAP

Who am I?

What shapes my story? What do I want others to understand? Identity is a collection of people, places, memories, values, and dreams.

TODAY'S GOAL

Map the people, places, values, interests, and experiences that shape you. Use words, phrases, symbols, or drawings. You don't need to fill every box.

01

Brainstorm

Jot down what comes first — speed wins.

02

Circle 3–5

Mark what feels most true right now.

03

Statement

One identity statement + one open question.

04

Share One

Introduce one part to a partner.

★ Identity Map Workspace

PEOPLE

People who shaped me

family · friends · teachers

PLACES

Places that matter

home · school · city · online

INTERESTS

Interests & strengths

music · art · sport · humor

VALUES

Values I live by kindness · honesty · courage

★ ME

My identity at the center

5–8 words that describe you.

EXPERIENCES

Experiences that changed me

struggles · moves · turning points

CULTURE

Languages · cultures · communities languages · groups I belong to

DREAMS

Goals & dreams

what I hope to become · build

QUESTIONS

Questions I'm exploring

Who am I becoming?

03 — MAP » WORDS

Turn your map into language.

Use your map as a source. Complete the starters to begin shaping your identity in language. Practice for your introduction, your writing, and eventually your CHORUS lyrics.

One important part of who I am is _____

A person or place that shaped me is _____

A value I want to live by is _____

An experience that changed me taught me _____

A question I am still exploring is _____

? Quick Reflection

Q · 01

Which part of your identity map feels most important to you right now?

Q · 02

Which part would you like to develop more during camp?

Q · 03

One word I want people to connect with me is —

♥ REMEMBER

"Your identity is always growing. What you write today is a snapshot — not the whole story. Be kind to yourself as you explore."

04 — PARTNER SHARE

KISAS
EST · MXXXVI

Practice saying it out loud.

Use your identity map to prepare a short introduction. Review the checklist. After you share, fill in what you learned.

✓ Partner Share Checklist

- ☐ I shared 3 parts of my identity map with my partner.
- ☐ I explained why one part of my identity matters to me.
- ☐ I asked a question — one open-ended question about their map.
- ☐ I listened respectfully and took at least one note.

ONE THING I LEARNED

ONE QUESTION I HAVE

📅 30–45 Sec Introduction Planner

Aim for honesty over perfection. The goal is to sound real, not polished.

My name is _____

One important part of who I am is _____

This matters because _____

One thing I hope to grow during camp is _____

📌 TODAY'S GOAL

AUTHENTIC VOICE — Sound real, not perfect. Use your own examples. Choose words you would actually say. Speak clearly, slowly, and with confidence.

MUSIC MINI-SESSION · DAY 02

Names · Respect · Community · Identity.

♪ TODAY'S SONG — "Say My Name" by Destiny's Child

★ Today we will

- Practice saying names clearly and kindly.
- Think about why names matter for respect and belonging.
- Write one short CHORUS idea (8–12 words) about identity.

1 Opening Circle — Say · Repeat · Greet

SPEAKER	LINE
ME	My name is _____. Please pronounce it like _____
PARTNER	Hi _____. Nice to meet you, _____
TEACHER	Thank you. I appreciate you saying it carefully.

2 Why Names Matter

- Using someone's name says: "I see you. You matter."
- Names build connection and community.
- Correct pronunciation shows care and inclusion.
- It's okay to ask again and practice.

3 While You Listen — One Word

Write one word for how it feels when someone says your name correctly:

I FEEL — _____

The part people remember.

CHORUS = the part people remember. Make 2 versions. 8–12 words. Clarity beats rhyme.

Quick CHORUS Builder.

Pick one frame. Fill the blank. Read aloud. Clap the rhythm. Choose the one that feels true.

FRAME 1 — Say my name — _____ (because _____).

FRAME 2 — When you say my name, I feel _____.

FRAME 3 — My name is my story — _____.

FRAME 4 — You see me when you _____ (say it right).

★ MY CHORUS LINE — FINAL

Choose Your Words

Pick one message word + one image word. Then build two versions: simple, then poetic.

MESSAGE WORD — choose one real brave

calm kind

free

honest

other —

IMAGE WORD — choose one

fox

rose stars

strings

invisible

other —

Save your strongest ideas.

This is where you collect the best of today. Bring this packet every day — your Asset Bank grows from Day 2 → Day 5, when you submit your full lyrics.

ASSET	WHAT TO WRITE TODAY
Team Core Question	ONE best question (1 sentence). -----
Message Statement	"Our song is about ____." + "We want the audience to feel ____." -----
Revised Claim	Your final answer (1–2 sentences) after debate. ----- -----
CHORUS Candidate #1	8–12 words (simple version). -----
CHORUS Candidate #2	8–12 words (poetic version). Circle the best. -----
Image / Word Bank	3 feelings + 3 images/metaphors + 2 power verbs. ----- -----

07 — EXIT

One last thing before you go.

Quick and honest. No wrong answers. This helps your teacher know how to support you tomorrow.

EXIT TICKET

1 — The most important thing I want people to understand about me is

.....

.....

2 — One detail from today's identity map that may become part of my speech, lyrics, or writing is

.....

.....

3 — My confidence level for introducing myself today —

☐ 1
 ☐ 2
 ☐ 3
 ☒ 4
 ☐ 5
 circle one

→ TOMORROW · DAY 03

Verses & story imagery. Lines that bring your CHORUS to life with concrete pictures, sounds, and tiny details from your map.

★ KEEP THIS PACKET

Bring it every day. Your Asset Bank grows from Day 2 → Day 5, when you submit your full lyrics.

— You don't have to share everything. Just the truest part. —