

DAY 02 · IDENTITY WORKSHOP

Identity Workshop. Begin.

A workspace to map who you are, explore what shapes your story, and begin building the words that could become your song. Take your time. Be honest.

TODAY · FIVE MODULES

Five steps. One workspace.

M / 01 Identity Map ●	M / 02 Map → Words ●	M / 03 Music Mini- Session ●	M / 04 Partner Share ●	M / 05 Asset Bank ●
---	--	--	--	---

Name _____	Class _____
Date _____	Teacher _____

02 · Identity Map

Who am I, really?

Identity is a collection of people, places, memories, values, and dreams. The goal of this map is to slow down and look at all the pieces together.

TODAY'S GOAL

Map the people, places, values, interests, and experiences that shape you. Use words, phrases, symbols, drawings. You don't need to fill every box.

01Brainstorm

Jot down what comes first — speed wins.

02Circle

Mark 3–5 details that feel most true.

03Statement

One identity statement. One question.

04Share One

Introduce one part to a partner.

Workspace Identity MapPEOPLE*People who shaped me

family · friends · teachers

PLACESPlaces that matter

home · school · city · online

INTERESTSInterests & strengths

music · art · sport · humor

VALUESValues I live by kindness · honesty · courage

★ MEMy identity at the center

5–8 words that describe you.

EXPERIENCESExperiences that changed me

struggles · moves · turning points

CULTURELanguages · cultures · communities languages · groups I belong to

DREAMSGoals & dreams

what I hope to become · build

QUESTIONSQuestions I'm exploring

Who am I becoming?

03 · Map → Words

Turn your map into language.

Use your map as a source. Complete the starters to begin shaping your identity in language. These are practice for your introduction, your writing, and your CHORUS lyrics.

*One important part of who I am
is* _____

*A person or place that shaped me
is* _____

*A value I want to live by
is* _____

An experience that changed me taught me _____

*A question I am still exploring
is* _____

Reflect Quick Reflection

Q. 01

Which part of your identity map feels most important to you right now?

Q. 02

Which part would you like to develop more during camp?

Q. 03

One word I want people to connect with me is —

REMEMBER

"Your identity is always growing. What you write today is a snapshot — not the whole story. Be kind to yourself as you explore."

04 · Partner Share

Practice saying it out loud.

Use your identity map to prepare a short introduction. Review the checklist below.
After you share, fill in what you learned.

Checklist Partner Share

- ☐ I shared 3 parts of my identity map with my partner.
- ☐ I explained why one part of my identity matters to me.
- ☐ I asked a question — one open-ended question about their map.
- ☐ I listened respectfully and took at least one note.

ONE THING I LEARNED

ONE QUESTION I HAVE

Planner 30–45 Sec Introduction

Aim for honesty over perfection. The goal is to sound real, not polished.

My name _____

is _____

One important part of who I am _____

is _____

This matters _____

because _____

One thing I hope to grow during camp _____

is _____

AUTHENTIC VOICE

Sound real, not perfect. Use your own examples. Choose words you would actually say. Speak clearly, slowly, and with confidence.

Music Mini-Session · Day 02

Names · Respect · Community · Identity.

♪ Today's Song — "Say My Name" by Destiny's Child

M / 01 Today we will

- Practice saying names clearly and kindly.
- Think about why names matter for respect and belonging.
- Write one short CHORUS idea (8–12 words) about identity.

M / 02 Opening Circle — Say · Repeat · Greet

Speaker	Line
Me	My name is _____ Please pronounce it like _____
Partner	Hi _____ Nice to meet you, _____
Teacher	Thank you. I appreciate you saying it carefully.

M / 03 Why Names Matter

- Using someone's name says: "I see you. You matter."
- Names build connection and community.
- Correct pronunciation shows care and inclusion.
- It's okay to ask again and practice.

M / 04 While You Listen — One Word

Write one word for how it feels when someone says your name correctly:

I feel — _____

05 · Chorus Lab

The part people remember.

CHORUS = the part people remember. Make 2 versions. 8–12 words. Clarity beats rhyme.

M / 05 · Quick Builder

Build your chorus.

Pick one frame. Fill the blank. Read aloud. Clap the rhythm. Choose the one that feels true.

FRAME 01 Say my name — _____ (because _____).

FRAME 02 When you say my name, I feel _____.

FRAME 03 My name is my story — _____.

FRAME 04 You see me when you _____ (say it right).

MY CHORUS LINE — FINAL

Words Choose Your Words

Pick one message word + one image word. Build two versions: simple, then poetic.

MESSAGE WORD — CHOOSE ONE

realbravecalmkindfreehonestother —

IMAGE WORD — CHOOSE ONE

foxrosestarsstringsinvisibleother —

06 · Asset Bank

Save your strongest ideas.

This is where you collect the best of today. Bring this packet every day — your Asset Bank grows from Day 02 → Day 05, when you submit your full lyrics.

Asset	What to write today
Team Core Question	ONE best question (1 sentence). _____
Message Statement	"Our song is about ____." + "We want the audience to feel ____." _____
Revised Claim	Your final answer (1–2 sentences) after debate. _____ _____
CHORUS Candidate #1	8–12 words (simple version). _____
CHORUS Candidate #2	8–12 words (poetic version). Circle the best. _____ _____
Image / Word Bank	3 feelings + 3 images/metaphors + 2 power verbs. _____ _____

07 · Exit

One last thing before you go.

Quick and honest. No wrong answers. This helps your teacher know how to support you tomorrow.

EXIT TICKET

01 — The most important thing I want people to understand about me is

02 — One detail from today's identity map that may become part of my speech, lyrics, or writing is

03 — My confidence level for introducing myself today —

1 2 3 4 5

circle one

→ TOMORROW · DAY 03

Verses & story imagery. Lines that bring your CHORUS to life with concrete pictures, sounds, and tiny details from your map.

★ KEEP THIS PACKET

Bring it every day. Your Asset Bank grows from Day 02 → Day 05, when you submit your full lyrics.

— You don't have to share everything. Just the truest part.